KANTHALLOOR

Nature's Hidden Gem

Tucked away in the majestic Western Ghats, Kanthalloor is a peaceful haven known for its breathtaking landscapes and rich culture. Set at 1525 meters above sea level, this village is a perfect escape into nature, offering mist-covered mountains, dense forests, and flowing rivers that create an atmosphere of calm and beauty. The cool, breezy weather lasts most of the year, making Kanthalloor a refreshing retreat from the heat.

One of Kanthalloor's most unique features is its variety of crops, including apples, strawberries, and plums—rare finds in South India. The surrounding farms and plantations yield fresh fruits and vegetables year-round, with beans, carrots, and tomatoes grown in winter. Every season brings something new to savor, whether it's the sweet taste of fresh apples or the aroma of ripened guava.

In addition to its agricultural richness, Kanthalloor is surrounded by incredible natural attractions. Chinnar Wildlife Sanctuary and Anamudi Shola National Park are nearby, home to diverse flora and fauna. The village is also close to the Muniyara Dolmens, ancient burial chambers that give a glimpse into prehistoric life, and the famous Neelakurinji flowers that bloom once every 12 years. Explore Kundala Dam, Lakkam Waterfalls, or visit Marayoor for its sandalwood forests and ancient rock paintings.

Whether you're hiking through misty trails, visiting local farms, or simply enjoying the cool breeze and mountain views, Kanthalloor promises a serene and unforgettable experience.

"We had a really nice time at Kanav Resort! The place has a very peaceful atmosphere, perfect for a relaxing getaway. The staff was very courteous and made sure we were comfortable throughout our stay. A special mention to Lakshmi akka's cooking—the food was absolutely delicious and felt like home-cooked meals. Afzal and Ansie owners and her daughter, welcomed us so warmly and made us feel at home. The rooms were neat and well-maintained, and the overall experience was truly enjoyable. Definitely a great place to unwind with family or friends!"

"Fantastic two-day family vacation at "Kanav Living", the ideal getaway for anyone looking to unwind. Kanav Living is more than simply a resort; it was founded by a couple who wanted to offer more than just lodging. Throughout the entire trip, the level of friendliness and greeting was fantastic. Every element of their resort reflects their vision of protecting the environment and spending time in harmony with it. We had the first-of-its-kind experience staying in both Wood House and Mud House. I would suggest every family must visit and stay with Kanav living to unleash their Kanav(dream)."

"Kanav (Means Dream !) and I think no other name may suit so well for a wonderful place like this... It's not your usual Hill side hotel room or a normal resort...it's your home for the days you stay there and unwind... Kanav is very special and it will remain close to your heart once you spend time there with your family/loved ones ...

Kanav is a place where nature meets modern amenities. From out side you will see a beautiful mud house and a well designed wood house where inside is made matching to the theme and same time all resort/Hotel amenities are available.

"Kanav" is Perfect for a weekend to spend quality time with your loved ones in Kanthalloor. If you would like to do workation, You can stay longer worry free. High speed internet and power back up is there by default.

Writing this note after a day n night stay there last week with my family and planning for next visit very soon "

"Kanav Living in Kanthalloor is the perfect retreat for nature lovers. The resort offers cozy mud and wooden houses that blend traditional Kerala charm with modern comforts. Surrounded by misty mountains, waterfalls, and lush greenery, it's a tranquil escape from city life. Guided activities like jeep safaris and treks let you explore nearby attractions, including wildlife sanctuaries and ancient sites. The homestyle South Indian meals are fresh and delicious, and the staff is friendly and attentive. Highly recommend Kanav Living for anyone seeking relaxation and an authentic mountain experience in Kerala."

"A "home" away from home, that's what I would say in short about Kanav ! I was a bit sceptical when I initially booked Kanav as it being a comparatively new property. But since reaching their the hospitality and care shown by the hosts actually made us forget that we checked in for a stay and for us it was like visiting a friend's place.

I was not doing well when I reached the property. The care shown by them towards me was really a warmth! And also the mud house was a different experience and could see from the designs the effort put towards setting up the property. And also the cozy surroundings. At night it was chilling atmosphere. Thanks again Kanav living. Definitely recommend this place !"
